Tired of working late to close batches or create reports?

- Never chase down receipts again – they're all saved in the terminal and online
- Close out batches online via mobile or desktop, or on any terminal
- View transactions from all dealership locations in one platform
- Get custom reports in real time, online, on the terminal, or even on your phone
- View transactions daily, weekly, monthly, or yearly, and filter by a range of criteria
- Get any details about an open batch

Increase sales in your service department

Make it easier for your customers to say “yes” to service.

With instant customer financing, you get paid in full within 48 hours, and the customer has the freedom to pay over time in manageable monthly installments.

- Provide clients with the option to instantly finance repairs, services, and accessories through your terminal
- Increase opportunities to upsell

Offer customers more ways to pay

Payment options are evolving. Accept new payment methods, such as:

Good news!

It's easier than you think to get out of your current merchant contract

- BNA will provide a complimentary review of your current contract terms
- We'll pay a portion (or all) of your early cancellation fees to get you out of your current merchant contract
- For easier reconciliation, value-added services, and potentially lower rates, it's worth switching
